STANHOPE BURLEIGH—The Jessel ets in our homes.—A novel. By littax Dur. In one elegant 12 volume of 40 pages, Artistically litestrated with fine tinted Engravings; beautifully bound in Embossed Stushin.

This thrillingly interesting romance has created a profound semantion throughout this free land. It has thrown the political parties of the United States into an amounted agrintion; it has already been the theme of discouration in many legislative bodies. The remarkeble exposition of the manner in which public opinion is made in this country, by secure the elevatation of incipaing domagogies, at the exposite of those institutions bequesthed by our forcelathers, will astonish thousands. It will filuminate the American mind with a faithful History of the Rise, Progress. Intripues, and Crimes of the deadly system of Jesutism and Priest-conft, which is positiving our homes, and corrupting our politics and institutions. In startling revelations of American society should be read by every friend of the great movement now in progress, which is to release Hall & Son's advertisement in the Maxical Harld and Times: "With the great and increased attention now given to the study of music, the present demand for this beautiful and graceful Instrupresent demand for this beautiful and graceful Instrument should not be a matter of surprise. A few years age it was quite a novelity to hear a Lady or Gentleman play the Guitar, but the popularity of the instrument, has so greatly increased, that there is now scarcely a family of any musical pretention, but at least one of its members number among their accomplishments that of playing the Guitar." William Hall & Sons are making a very superior article in that line, and their instruments are warranted to stand any climate. We have those of their make, and also, the German and Spanish Guitar, from $3 to $30 each Also strings of the very heat quality.
